VICTORIA TEEL

Saturday, November 4, 2017

Victoria Teel is an award winning belly dance performer and instructor and has worked with internationally acclaimed artists, directors, and producers. In 2010, Victoria was chosen along with 24 other dancers to participate in the worlds first ever belly dance reality show, Project Belly Dance. She placed among the top six contestants, earning her spot in the Final 6 instructional DVD released in March 2011. Soon after Project Belly Dance, Victoria joined Miles Copeland's Bellydance Superstars in 2011. She is currently a member of the company and has toured full time with the company for three years. Victoria is internationally recognized for her unique fluid dance style & effortless execution. Her instruction method focuses on flow and how to create a seamless piece of choreography for any style. Today, Victoria is based in Washington DC. She currently teaches weekly classes in Washington DC and teaches workshops around the nation.

- 9:30a - 10:00a      Registration & Shopping
- 10:00a - 12:00p      The Teel Fan Method, Part 2 - Victoria will introduce advanced movements of her signature method for performing with fan veils through drills & combinations. She will also review techniques from Teel Fan Method Part 1 Workshop. Students need a right handed regular fan veil, flutter fan, or signature Teel Fan. Prior experience with Teel Fan is recommended but not required.
